DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In response to the amendment filed 2/24/04:

the specification has been amended;

claims 1-26 have been canceled;

new claims 31-34 have been added.

Double Patenting

2. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

3. Claims 27-30 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 27-30 of copending Application No. 09/590,936. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 31-34 are allowed.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach or suggest said processor for restarting said computer system using said new information in said second memory instead of existing information in said first memory to test said new information; said processor further for loading said new information from said second memory into said first memory such that said new information can be used for a subsequent startup of said computer system in response to a positive test result from said restarting; and said processor also for restarting said computer system using said existing information in said first memory in response to a negative test result from said restarting.

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
